Statement of Interest

Please submit a statement of interest addressing the questions below. Your statement of interest should be no longer than two pages, single-spaced, and should be typewritten in justified, 12-point serif font, with 1” margins.

According to lawcrossing.com, a survey of 308 out of 400 first-year law students at a top-twenty law school revealed that of the 25% with paid law firm jobs for the summer following their first year, only 2% worked in major law firms and only 13% earned more than $600 per week. DAPP Direct provides first-year, women of color students with jobs in small, medium and large law firms across the country, and students earn an average of $2,200 per week. Please explain what an opportunity to secure a job through the DAPP Direct Job Placement Fair would mean to you and how you would make the most out of that opportunity.

A Completed Application Includes:

- Completed and signed application
- Resumé
- Recent headshot
- Unofficial undergraduate and, if applicable, graduate transcripts
- Statement of Interest (as described above)
- Unofficial law school transcript (to be submitted as soon as all first semester grades are posted)

Certification

I hereby certify that all information provided in this application and all accompanying documentation is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that providing false or inaccurate information and/or failing to comply with all DAPP Direct requirements may result in rescission of program participation, including revocation of any offer of employment. I agree and acknowledge that I will supplement this application with my first semester law school grades as soon as all first semester grades are posted. Moreover, I acknowledge and agree that if I am accepted into the DAPP Direct program and ultimately placed in a summer 2020 internship, I must attend the mandatory client-readiness boot camp in Chicago on May 29 – 31, 2020.
